

Pilgrim Event – Bexhill-on-Sea, East Sussex 11th to 14th September 2020 or part thereof

Join us in Bexhill-on-Sea for our Autumn Event

Situated on the south coast, between Eastbourne and Hastings, with its pebble beach (and swimming opportunities) Bexhill has an historic town centre and the famous De La Warr Pavilion, one of the best art deco buildings in the country (if you have seen Poirot on t.v. you have seen the Pavilion!). The town is the home of a more 'mature' community than some places, evidenced by the annual mobility vehicle/wheel-chair/wheeled-walker dash along The Promenade! But there are also lots of more energetic walking opportunities very suitable for Pilgrims!

Our accommodation for the whole weekend is a church hall just over a mile from the Railway Station and the town centre.

As always, our programme will include some walks, discussion time, worship, cooking, eating and fellowship time together.

Arrive anytime from mid-afternoon on Friday 11th September (first meal will be Friday evening) and depart after breakfast on Monday 14th (we have to be out of the Hall in time for a morning booking) if you cannot manage the whole weekend come for part of it, or just for a day.

The cost is three nights at our standard rate, so:

Full Price	£54.00
Reduced rate	£45.00
(for students over 12 and those living entirely on state benefits)
Children under the age of 12	£22.50

If you join us for only part of the time the cost will be proportionate.

Bexhill is well served by trains on the south coast line, with some through services from London.

There is a National Express Coach once a day, arriving mid evening and leaving at breakfast time.

A booking form is enclosed with this copy of The Way. Please return it to Ian Mason, 92 Bodmin Avenue, Stafford ST17 0EQ, or by email to ianmason@talktalk.net. If you have any questions please contact Ian, by letter, email or telephone 01785 662194.

Please book by no later than Friday 31st July.

At that point, and dependent upon the government imposed social distancing requirements then in force, a decision will be made as to whether the event is able to go ahead or will need to be cancelled. By the middle of August those who have booked will either be sent joining instructions or a cancellation notice. This will preferably be by email (please put your email address on your booking form), or by post if you do not give an email address.
